

Grade 6 SOCIAL STUDIES WRITING ASSIGNMENT

WRITING PROMPT: Imagine that you are the host of Engineering an Empire. You are in China on an assignment to film an archaeological dig (essentially, a bunch of people looking for old stuff in the ground) and you come upon an amazing discovery. You may invent a name for yourself as a host. You should interview AT LEAST 2 "experts" that are on the "dig" with you and your film crew.

The discovery should relate to something you have learned about ancient China.

It should be taking place at a specific geographical location that we have learned about. (EX: "Here we are on the Tibetan Plateau (think about places you labeled on your Map of China).

You must draw a picture of your discovery and label what it is.

PLEASE FOLLOW THIS PROCESS:

- Brainstorm ideas in your notebook.
- 2. Write a rough draft in your notebook.
- FINAL DRAFT: must be printed and drawn on the paper provided.
